

Combating Hate Crime in Europe

Promoting the empowerment of civil society and Law enforcement Agencies to make hate crime visible

International Conference

Milan, 7 June 2016

Camera del Lavoro di Milano,
Corso di Porta Vittoria 43, Milan

9.30 – 9:45 Greetings and Opening session

-Corrado Mandreoli, CGIL Milan

-Assessore Marco Granelli head of the Security sector of the Municipality of Milan

9.45 – 10.45 Session 1: Hate Crime in Europe: the latest national and European tendencies

-Denis Roth Fichet, European Commission against Racism and Discrimination

-On. Milena Santerini, coordinator of the NO HATE alliance of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe

-Roberto Bortone, UNAR

10.45 -11.45 Session 2: Reasons of hate crimes underreporting in European countries:

-Pap Kouma, writer, victim of hate crime

-the Hardship of supporting hate crime cases: Massimo Pastore, ASGI

-Promoting the reporting of hate crime through Knowledge and data collection: Grazia Naletto, Lunaria

11.45 -12.00 Coffee Break

12.00-13.30: Session 3: Importance of collaboration between LEAs and civil society: presentation of Good Practices and tools

Promoting occasions of training and collaboration between LEAs and NGOs: the experience of the Together project:

- Edoardo Bazzaco, SOS Racisme Catalunya

-Diogenes Sabana, BILZEN, Basque Government Agency for Diversity, Spain

- Aitor Larrea Negro, Ertzaintza, Basque Police, Chief of Citizenship Rights and Public Security, General Secretary, Spain

-Supporting the collaboration between LEAS and NGOs In Italy : Mariagrazia Sangalli, president of the LENFORD net

13.30 -14.30 Lunch Break

14.30-16.00 Parallel Roundtables:

ROUNDTABLE 1. How can we strengthen the collaboration between LEAs and civil society?

Moderator: Corrado Madreoli, CGIL

Francesca Cesarotti, Amnesty International

Udo Enwereuzor, Cospe

Giuseppe Maisto, jurist

Representative of the municipal police of Milan

Massimo Pastore, ASGI

Stefano Pasta, Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore, Milano

Maria Grazia Sangalli, rete Lenford

ROUNDTABLE 2. What can we do to make it visible hate crimes?

Moderator: Danilo De Biase, journalist

Grazia Naletto, Lunaria

Giovanni Maria Bellu, Carta di Roma

Roberto Borbone, UNAR –National Office Against discriminations representative

Caterina Unlirova, Professor at the law Faculty of Masaryk University in Brno, Czech Republic

Aristos Tsiartas, Head of Authority against discrimination in Cyprus

16.15 : Plenary Final Session:

-Presentation ROUNDTABLES discussions

Corrado Mandreoli and Danilo De Biase

- Conclusions

Roberto Bortone, UNAR

